ABOUT DIA DE LOS MUERTOS & VIVA LA VIDA FESTIVAL

Day of the Dead is an important Latin American tradition that takes place on November 1st and 2nd. It is a time for friends and family gather and remember loved ones – not in mourning, but through celebration! The origins trace back to the pre-Columbian era when death was viewed as a transformation and continuation of life. This ancient belief evolved into the modern tradition of commemorating loved ones with altars decorated with sugar skulls, flowers, photographs, favorite foods and memorabilia of the deceased. Family and friends share stories and memories, sing songs, and play music to celebrate those who have passed on. In Austin, Mexic-Arte Museum has taken these traditions, continued some, transformed others, and created new expressions to produce today's Viva la Vida Festival & Parade!

VIVA LA VIDA FESTIVAL & PARADE

THE FESTIVAL

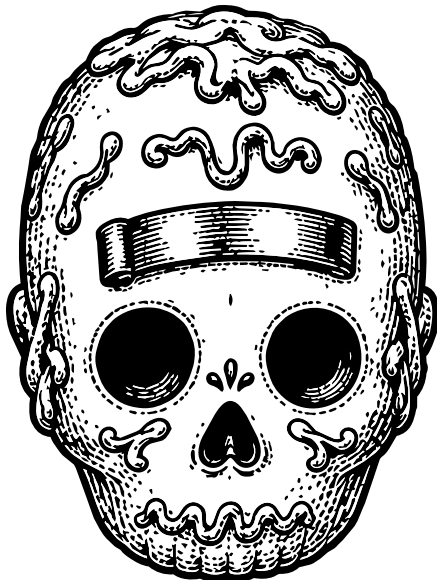

Viva la Vida Festival brings together Austin's diverse population, including artists, families, businesses, visitors from all over and other community members alike. During the 2024 festivities, over 20,000 people attended Viva la Vida Festival and celebrated life by enjoying the arts and some of our favorite traditions!

Past festivals are highlighted on the website.

THE GRAND PROCESSION

Mexic-Arte Museum's Grand Procession travels through historic 6th Street and culminates at 4th Street and Congress Avenue. Over 2,000 participants, including schools, businesses, community organizations, musicians, dancers, and other creatives, make up the procession. The Grand Procession consists of four main components: the pre-Columbian Americas, Mexico Lindo, Tejano, and Austin Weird.

THE EDUCATION PAVILION

The Mariposa Plaza serves youth and families with art making experiences such as papel picado, flowers, and masks which educate the public on Day of the Dead history and traditions. Your sponsorship allows us to bring our award-winning education programming to thousands of young people.

VIVA LA VIDA FESTIVAL & PARADE 2026

The following statistics are based on our numbers for the in-person Viva La Vida Festival & Parade in 2024. An estimated 20,000 attendees came out to Viva La Vida Festival & Parade in 2024. This year, Mexic-Arte expects a similar reach to 2024 since the 2025 Parade was canceled due to inclement weather. We are excited to present the festival in downtown Austin!
